HONGKUNG, MARCH 11TH, 1892,

In his report on the working of the Merchandise Marks Act last year the Collector of Customs at Bombay states that the quantity of goods brought to that port bearing false descriptions is rapidly decreasing, and it is believed that few such goods manage to pass the Custom House. At the same time manufacturers are beginning to send unmarked goods, where they previously sent marked goods, and there is reason to fear that in many such instances descriptions which the Custom House would treat as objectionable are affixed after importation. Indeed the Collector states that to play are requested to write their names on the importation of labels which are obviously the list in the Clab. intended to be put to dishonest uses is by no means uncommon. The number of detentions under the Act last year were two in Rangoon, four in Madras, 144 in Karachi, 303 in Calcutta, and 681 in Bombay. The Rangoon Cazette in a couple of articles on the subject ridicules the Act, which it condemrs the highest grade of the highest class of thinese as utterly futile, arguing that it would be Order. far better to let matters adjust themselves, as they would do in time. But when they came to look at the exports to our Eastern possessions and the East generally they would find the figures were more serious still. He found that the falling off to British India was 225,000,000, and that to China, Hongkong, and Japan was 38,000,000, or a total of 264,000,000 yards of cotton cloth. So that while to other parts of the world there had been an increase of exports of 51,000,000, the prominent fact brought before them was the immense falling-off of 204,000,000 yards to our Eastern possessions, China, Hongkong, and Japan. If they took cotton varn they found the same result. There was a falling off to all places of 13,000,000lb., and to China, Hongkong, and Japan there was a decrease of 10,000,000lb., which very nearly accounted for the whole decrease in the expert of stocks.
